

Shoreline Fire Department Fire Sirens: June 8, 2009

For the next few editions of Fire Sirens, we are providing a look at one day of calls in Shoreline. We think our citizens might want to know more about the types of calls we see in a 24 hour period.

Here's a look at the 9-1-1 calls firefighters responded to on our busiest day last week: Monday, June 8.

- 12:10 An 18 year old female drank a quarter of a bottle of rum, feeling nauseous and vomiting at a local school playground.
- 07:29 A 77 year old female, with difficulty breathing
- 07:41 80 year old female injured in a fall at home
- 08:35 Complaint about smoldering logs on the beach near Innis Arden
- 09:03 92 year old male injured in a fall at home
- 09:06 Automatic fire alarm, apartment complex - no fire
- 09:22 47 year old female suffering stroke symptoms at work at Shoreline Community College
- 11:18 Shoreline Community College, automatic fire alarm - no fire
- 11:34 88 year old male injured in a fall at home
- 11:43 24 year old male with hand lacerations after a domestic violence incident
- 12:04 81 year old male with uncontrolled nosebleed at an adult family home
- 13:09 80 year old male suffering diabetic symptoms at a local rehab center
- 14:39 52 year old female suffering from shaking and facial redness
- 17:02 95 year old male whose medic alert activated... patient found with no medical problem.
- 18:49 Automatic fire alarm, apartment complex - no fire
- 19:36 75 year old female injured in a fall at home
- 20:18 52 year old female reporting nausea and vomiting
- 21:04 51 year old female, lacerations to head after a fall at a nursing home
- 22:32 18 year old male injured in a fall from his bike at Aurora and N. 205th
- 23:37 89 year old female with severe abdominal pain

Have a question about Shoreline Fire? Email our Public Information Officer: melanie@shorelinefire.com or call 206-533-6564.